DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Durlacher (U.S. 2,954,977). Referring to claim 1, as broadly claimed, Durlacher teaches a multi-level structure and a plurality of steps (17) configured to allow a child to climb from a first level of the structure to a second level of the structure, the steps being mounted within the multi-level structure so that they are removable without damaging the structure. Referring to claim 2, Durlacher teaches steps sized to accommodate the body of a child. Referring to claims 3-4, as best understood, Durlacher teaches upright members (15) capable of being removed, wherein the steps are removably attached to the upright members. Referring to claims 5-6, Durlacher teaches a horizontal member (the steps) removably received in the notched portions of the upright member. Referring to claim 7, as broadly construed, Durlacher teaches upright members (portions adjacent notches) positioned adjacent to each of the four corners of each step. Referring to claims 8-9, the steps define rungs between adjacent upright members. Referring to claim 10, as best understood teaches a first level at ground level. Referring to claim 11, Durlacher teaches the playset is configured so that removal of the steps leaves an open play area. Referring to claim 12, Durlacher teaches that the steps may be removed at any time. Referring to claims 13-15, Durlacher teaches providing a multi-level structure, removably installing within the structure a plurality of steps configured to allow a child to climb from a first level to a second level, removing steps, wherein the steps can act as rungs, which may be climbed on by a user.
